MEETINGS FIRST AND THIRD TUESDAYS, 8 P. M.

8:27 p.m.

June 6, 1944

The regular meeting of the Mayor and Common Council was held in the Seat Pleasant Fire House with Mayor Moreland, Councilman Fominaya, Roberts, Wells, Marquette and Cleary present. The new Council was duly sworn in by Mr. Edward F. Roberson, notary public, Mayor Van Moreland thanked the old members of the Council for their cooperation during the past two years and welcomed the newly elected members.

Mayor Moreland appointed Councilman Fominaya as chairman of the Legislation Committee; Cleary, chairman of Finance; Wells, chairman of Roads, Roberts, chairman of Police; and Marguette, chairman of Sanitation.

Town Bailiff Paul Beyer was reappointed to serve. Mr. Beyer stated that he was retired from the Fire Department and it was necessary to make additional compensation. The town decided to make plans to pay Mr. Beyer a monthly salary and also seek the business men to employ him on a part time basis to guard their places at night.

The following bills were ordered paid: Friedlander & Weinstein, auditor, $240; Disposal of two dogs, Willie Belt, $2; Disposal of 2 dogs, Paul Beyer, $2; The Enquirer Gazette, printing ballots, stationery and tax forms, $41.23; F. L. Watkins, $30.70, gravel and labor; E. Morrison Paper Co. tax ledger, $10.77; William R. Jones, gravel, 68th Pl., $30; J. Theo. Crown, Treas. salary for May, $25.

Preston Tate, representing the American Legion, asked the Council to suspend taxes on the Legion headquarters here as it was being done by the County and State, this matter was left on the table for further investigation.

The clerk was instructed to reply to a letter to the American Automobile Association, which complained of the condition of F Street, and inform them that the street would be fixed in the near future.

Councilman Wells was instructed to seek bids for the construction of sidewalks, curbs and gutters along 69th Street after a petition had been presented to the Council by the citizens on that street. Councilman Wells was also instructed to secure a summons book for the town bailiff. The meeting adjourned at 10:30 p.m.
